From Pastor Steve...

Pastor Steve Buechler
(pastor@poplutheran.org;

301-869-3666)

This month, we begin the season of Easter, in which we celebrate not only Jesus' new life in the Resurrection, but the new life Jesus gives us, not only at the end of time, but right now. New life is great! It's exciting! And it can be joyful! But over and over again in our biblical readings during this season, the most common reaction to the Resurrection and new life is "fear" and "doubt", even among the most committed disciples.

Fear and doubt often seem odd to us as we read the stories, and we're likely to pass over them as merely initial reactions of surprise. However, I think the fear and doubt of the first disciples was more than momentary, and it was more than simply a reaction to something surprising. After all, the new life shown forth by Jesus' Resurrection meant that the disciples were entering into a completely new phase of their lives. Everything was changing. And it wasn't at all clear how this would all work out, and what it would mean for next year, next month or even tomorrow!

When things are bad, and death is all around us, it's horrible. But most of us have been through those times before. We sort of know what to expect. We know how things are probably going to go. And we've probably developed some skills to deal with the bad stuff. But the disciples now faced something entirely new - which, in fact, was really great - but they had no idea what it would mean for their lives going forward. There was no road map for this. No wonder they were scared and even doubted if this could really be happening.

Especially as we begin to move forward after Covid, we're entering a different time where, in many respects, the old "road maps" don't work anymore. Like those first disciples, there is a sense of new life! But it's also normal to wonder what's next, what this will mean for our future, and to be confused and even a little worried about how things will all work out.

Easter is our annual opportunity to remember that it's OK to feel that way! After all, so did the first disciples, no matter how committed they were to Jesus. But it's also a good time to remember that Jesus really was with them always, even when they were scared and doubting. Jesus continued to have a mission for his disciples, even when they weren't sure what the mission would look like or how it would work out. And while Jesus' presence in the lives of those first disciples didn't take away all the fear and doubt, his presence also gave them strength, joy and hope to meet the uncertainty of the future.

May this Easter season be a time for all of us, like those first disciples, to experience the living presence of Jesus, which can give us strength, joy and hope even and especially in times of fear and doubt!

Yours in Christ,

Second Saturday Service

COUNCIL CORNER

News and Views from the PoP Church Council

News:

The March Church Council meeting was routine with updates on the finances (we are doing okay), the shed project (Dekker Spielman is working toward replacing one of our storage sheds as his Eagle Scout project), the solar panel project (progress is being made), the yard sale (yes, we will have one this year, Covid permitting) and the courtyard (work will commence after Easter, weather permitting).

Views:

I have been thinking a lot about volunteers recently. Thoughts such as: how important they are to what we do at Prince of Peace, how fortunate we are to have the volunteers we do, and that we really need more.

I know that everyone has limited bandwidth. And that no one is wanting to sign up to help with an activity where:

- 1) it is unclear what the commitment is or
- 2) that the only way you can get out of the role is to move out of state.

So, we (church council) are striving to ensure that we are accurate with what the volunteer role requires in terms of time commitment and that you are not signing up for life. We do encourage you to consider the volunteer opportunities that we have open and determine if you are a good fit. We appreciate your time and talents.

Respectfully,
Jon Conary

Council met on March 8. You can read notes from that meeting (including the Pastor's and Treasurer's report) by clicking here.

SPOTLIGHT

Volunteers Needed!

Volunteers are needed for a number of key positions! This includes, especially, needing someone (or a pair of people) to be VBS Coordinator. Please check out the Key Volunteer listings on the glass door in the narthex and let Pastor Steve or Jon Conary know if you can help!

We need a Vacation Bible School director!

Time commitment is the week of VBS and several hours a month to get ready.

We need a Vice Treasurer

Covid-19 has had a dramatic impact on how we perform many of our daily/weekly activities including how we do church. Would you like to be part of the team that makes our "Live Stream" church possible? We are looking for a few more people to control the cameras and sound during our worship services.

We need someone to sit in the office during church and do the following: greet on-line worshippers, monitor the service on Facebook and let the sound person know if there is a problem, post links at the appropriate times in the service, share the peace, say bye and thank you to virtual attendees. The greetings and comments would all be as posts to Facebook.

Time commitment: 20 minutes to train, then the Sunday service.

Sunday School Offering

Our elementary classes learned about the three Lenten Sharing Bag giving opportunities and chose to contribute their offerings to Lutheran World Relief's Personal Care Kits. They hope to donate enough to provide a good amount of bar soap for the kits. Our last offering before our two-week class break will be on April 3. Families can also contribute other needed kit items such as light-weight, dark-colored bath towels. Sign up to donate these items on Sign-Up Genius (<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f0a4eada729a3fa7-poplenten>) and bring them to PoP by April 10!

Fruits of the Spirit Lessons

The elementary classes completed their study of the Fruits of the Spirit as described in Galatians 5:23. Our last Fruit of the Spirit was self-control, and we talked about the self-control Jesus showed as he allowed himself to be captured and nailed to the cross.

We talked about how we need God's support to help us with our daily self-control and made a craft that would allow us to exercise self-control. We secured a piece of candy in each of five only one cup a day for five days.

cups, which we then covered. On our crafts, we wrote 1 Peter 1:13, "So prepare your minds for action and exercise self-control." Our goal was to try to open

After nine weeks of learning about each of the Fruits of the Spirit, we had a recap lesson on them all, complete with Fruits of the Spirit bingo.

Lenten Sharing Bags

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND LUTHERAN CAMPUS MINISTRY runs an afterschool program for elementary school children of Langley Park. The children come from a multi-cultural community that unfortunately, is marked by high unemployment, language barriers, gang violence, drugs, and poverty. The program pairs each child one-on-one with a university student, who is their "buddy" for the semester. Through play and activities, CARing buddies focus on developing the children's language, reading, and math as well as their self-image and social abilities.
